My dear Mr. Mirza M. Ismail,

I am so happy to have received your very kind letter of the 17th inst. Would you kindly fix the time and the place at which you may conveniently see me?

I saw in the Daily Post of yesterday's issue that W. B. Dasappa, D. I. G. of Education has been given furlough preparatory to retirement.

Would you permit me to suggest as a step towards retrenchment that one of the Junior Professors of Physics in the Central College may very conveniently be abolished — — and I be placed to act for Mr. Dasappa? I have written this in this letter with the fear that my suggestion might be too late. I have placed this before the Dewan also on a number of occasions. I mentioned this particularly to him when I saw him the previous Saturday.

With great regards,

Yours sincerely,

B Venkatramanappa
